2	state identification card, or an Internal Revenue
3	Service preparer tax identification number, the last five
4	(5) digits of a control number that is on a document
5	issued to the individual by the United States
6	government.
7	If a form or statement provided to the county auditor under this section,
8	IC 6-1.1-22-8.1, or IC 6-1.1-22.5-12 includes the telephone number or
9	part or all of the Social Security number of a party or other number
10	described in subdivision (4)(B) of a party, the telephone number and
11	the Social Security number or other number described in subdivision
12	(4)(B) included are confidential. The statement may be filed in person
13	or by mail. If the statement is mailed, the mailing must be postmarked
14	on or before the last day for filing. The statement applies for that first 15	year and any succeeding year for which the deduction is allowed. To 16	obtain the deduction for a desired calendar year in which property taxes
17	are first due and payable, the statement must be completed and dated
18	in the immediately preceding calendar year and filed with the county
19	auditor on or before January 5 of the calendar year in which the 20	property taxes are first due and payable.
21	(f) Except as provided in subsection (n), (k), if a person who is 22	receiving, or seeks to receive, the deduction provided by this section in 23	the person's name:
24	(1) changes the use of the individual's property so that part or all
25	of the property no longer qualifies for the deduction under this 26	section; or
27	(2) is not eligible for a deduction under this section because the 28	person is already receiving:
29	(A) a deduction under this section in the person's name as 30	an individual or a spouse; or 31	(B) a deduction under the law of another state that is 32	equivalent to the deduction provided by this section;
33	the person must file a certified statement with the auditor of the county,
34	notifying the auditor of the person's ineligibility, not more than sixty
35	(60) days after the date of the change in eligibility. A person who fails
36	to file the statement required by this subsection may, under 37	IC 6-1.1-36-17, be liable for any additional taxes that would have been 38	due on the property if the person had filed the statement as required by 39	this subsection plus a civil penalty equal to ten percent (10%) of the 40	additional taxes due. The civil penalty imposed under this subsection
41	is in addition to any interest and penalties for a delinquent payment that
42	might otherwise be due. One percent (1%) of the total civil penalty collected under this subsection shall be transferred by the county to the department of local government finance for use by the department in establishing and maintaining the homestead property data base under subsection (i) and, to the extent there is money remaining, for any other purposes of the department. This amount becomes part of the property tax liability for purposes of this article.

(g) The department of local government finance may adopt rules or guidelines concerning the application for a deduction under this section.

10 (h) This subsection does not apply to property in the first year for which a deduction is claimed under this section if the sole reason that 11 12 a deduction is claimed on other property is that the individual or married couple maintained a principal residence at the other property 13 14 on the assessment date in the same year in which an application for a deduction is filed under this section or, if the application is for a 15 16 homestead that is assessed as personal property, on the assessment date 17 in the immediately preceding year and the individual or married couple 18 is moving the individual's or married couple's principal residence to the 19 property that is the subject of the application. Except as provided in 20 subsection (n), (k), the county auditor may not grant an individual or a married couple a deduction under this section if: 21

> (1) the individual or married couple, for the same year, claims the deduction on two (2) or more different applications for the deduction; and

25 (2) the applications claim the deduction for different property. 26 (i) The department of local government finance shall provide 27 secure access to county auditors to a homestead property data base that 28 includes access to the homestead owner's name and the numbers 29 required from the homestead owner under subsection (e)(4) for the sole purpose of verifying whether an owner is wrongly claiming a deduction 30 31 under this chapter or a credit under IC 6-1.1-20.4, IC 6-1.1-20.6, or 32 IC 6-3.6-5 (after December 31, 2016). Each county auditor shall submit 33 data on deductions applicable to the current tax year on or before 34 March 15 of each year in a manner prescribed by the department of local government finance. 35

(j) A county auditor may require an individual to provide evidence proving that the individual's residence is the individual's principal place of residence as claimed in the certified statement filed under subsection (e). The county auditor may limit the evidence that an individual is required to submit to a state income tax return, a valid driver's license, or a valid voter registration card showing that the residence for which the deduction is claimed is the individual's principal place of residence.

1	The department of local government finance shall work with county
2	auditors to develop procedures to determine whether a property owner
3	that is claiming a standard deduction or homestead credit is not eligible
4	for the standard deduction or homestead credit because the property
5	owner's principal place of residence is outside Indiana.
6	(k) As used in this section, "homestead" includes property that
7	satisfies each of the following requirements:
8	(1) The property is located in Indiana and consists of a dwelling
9	and the real estate, not exceeding one (1) acre, that immediately
10	surrounds that dwelling.
11	(2) The property is the principal place of residence of an
12	individual.
13	(3) The property is owned by an entity that is not described in
14	subsection (a)(2)(B).
15	(4) The individual residing on the property is a shareholder,
16	partner, or member of the entity that owns the property.
17	(5) The property was eligible for the standard deduction under 18	this section on March 1, 2009.
19	(1) If a county auditor terminates a deduction for property
20	described in subsection (k) with respect to property taxes that are:
21	(1) imposed for an assessment date in 2009; and
22	(2) first due and payable in 2010;
23	on the grounds that the property is not owned by an entity described in 24	subsection (a)(2)(B), the county auditor shall reinstate the deduction if 25	the taxpayer provides proof that the property is eligible for the 26	deduction in accordance with subsection (k) and that the individual
27	residing on the property is not claiming the deduction for any other
28	property.
29	(m) For assessment dates after 2009, the term "homestead"
30	includes:
31	(1) a deck or patio;
32	(2) a gazebo; or
33	(3) another residential yard structure, as defined in rules adopted
34	by the department of local government finance (other than a 35	swimming pool);
36	that is assessed as real property and attached to the dwelling.
37	(n) (k) A county auditor shall grant an individual a deduction
38	under this section regardless of whether the individual and the 39	individual's spouse claim a deduction on two (2) different applications
40	and each application claims a deduction for different property if the
41	property owned by the individual's spouse is located outside Indiana
42	and the individual files an affidavit with the county auditor containing

5	(2) A statement made under penalty of perjury that the following
6	are true:
0 7	(A) That the individual and the individual's spouse maintain
8	separate principal places of residence.
9	(B) That neither the individual nor the individual's spouse
10	has an ownership interest in the other's principal place of 10	residence.
12	(C) That neither the individual nor the individual's spouse has, for that same year, claimed a standard or substantially similar deduction for any property other than the property 15 16	maintained as a principal place of residence by the respective individuals.

17	A county auditor may require an individual or an individual's spouse to 18	provide evidence of the accuracy of the information contained in an 19	affidavit submitted under this subsection. The evidence required of the 20	individual or the individual's spouse may include state income tax
21	returns, excise tax payment information, property tax payment
22	information, driver license information, and voter registration
23	information.
24	( o) (l) If:
25	(1) a property owner files a statement under subsection (e) to
26	claim the deduction provided by this section for a particular 27	property; and
28	(2) the county auditor receiving the filed statement determines
29	that the property owner's property is not eligible for the 30	deduction;
31	the county auditor shall inform the property owner of the county
32	auditor's determination in writing. If a property owner's property is not
33	eligible for the deduction because the county auditor has determined
34	that the property is not the property owner's principal place of 35	residence, the property owner may appeal the county auditor's
36	determination as provided in IC 6-1.1-15. The county auditor shall 37	inform the property owner of the owner's right to appeal when the
38	county auditor informs the property owner of the county auditor's

22	homestead for the assessment date, even if on the assessment date the 23	property on which the homestead is currently located was vacant land
24	or the construction of the dwelling that constitutes the homestead was 25	not completed. The county auditor shall apply the deduction for the 26	assessment date and for the assessment date in any later year in which 27	the homestead remains eligible for the deduction. A homestead that
28	qualifies for the deduction under this section as provided in this 29	subsection is considered a homestead for purposes of section 37.5 of 30	this chapter and IC 6-1.1-20.6.
31	(q) (n) This subsection applies to an application for the deduction

12	(2) was ordered to transfer to a location outside Indiana; and 13	(3) was otherwise eligible, without regard to this subsection, for 14	the deduction under this section for the property for the 15	assessment date immediately preceding the transfer date
16	specified in the order described in subdivision (2).
17	For property to qualify under this subsection for the deduction provided
18	by this section, the individual described in subdivisions (1) through (3)
19	must submit to the county auditor a copy of the individual's transfer
20	orders or other information sufficient to show that the individual was 21	ordered to transfer to a location outside Indiana. The property continues
22	to qualify for the deduction provided by this section until the individual
23	ceases to be on active duty, the property is sold, or the individual's 24	ownership interest is otherwise terminated, whichever occurs first.
25	Notwithstanding subsection (a)(2), the property remains a homestead
26	regardless of whether the property continues to be the individual's
27	principal place of residence after the individual transfers to a location
28	outside Indiana. The property continues to qualify as a homestead
29	under this subsection if the property is leased while the individual is 30	away from Indiana and is serving on active duty, if the individual has 31	lived at the property at any time during the past ten (10) years.
32	Otherwise, the property ceases to qualify as a homestead under this 33	subsection if the property is leased while the individual is away from 34	Indiana. Property that qualifies as a homestead under this subsection
35	shall also be construed as a homestead for purposes of section 37.5 of 36	this chapter.
