

PROPOSED AMENDMENT

HB 1032 # 15

DIGEST

Applicability of 2026 redistricting plan. Provides that the redistricting plan applies to an election to the office of United States Representative at a primary and general election held after December 31 of the calendar year in which the election division certifies the plan's applicability. Provides that the election division may certify the applicability of the plan only after the election division determines that each of the following conditions exist in Indiana: (1) Indiana's electricity costs as determined by the U.S. Energy Information Administration rank in the lowest twenty-five percent (25%) of states nationally. (2) Every Hoosier has access to affordable health insurance as determined by the American Community Survey. (3) The family and social services administration has eliminated wait lists for the On My Way pre-kindergarten and CCDF child care voucher programs and fully funded participation in the programs for at least one year.
