BILL AMENDED:

SUBJECT: Health Insurance Coverage for Adoptive Children.

FIRST AUTHOR: Rep. Burton

BILL STATUS: As Introduced

FUNDS AFFECTED: X GENERAL
DEDICATED FEDERAL

IMPACT: State

Summary of Legislation: This bill provides that if an adoptive child is eligible for coverage under the Medicaid program and as a dependent under the adoptive parent's private health insurance, the adoptive parent may opt out of the adoptive child's participation in the Medicaid program.

The bill requires the adoptive parent to file a request with the Department of Child Services (DCS) to opt out of the adoptive child's participation in the Medicaid program. It provides that, before approving an adoptive parent's request, the DCS shall ensure that the adoptive child is eligible for coverage under the adoptive parent's private health insurance and will not experience a lapse in coverage while changing from Medicaid to private health insurance.

Effective Date: July 1, 2026.

Explanation of State Expenditures: Adoptive parents can currently withdraw an adoptive child from Medicaid coverage with no requirement the child has health insurance coverage from another source. As a result, this bill is not expected to impact state Medicaid expenditures.

The bill could increase DCS and Family and Social Services Administration (FSSA) workload to verify private insurance coverage and withdraw the adoptive children from Medicaid coverage. Increases in workload are expected to be minimal and accomplished under existing resource and funding levels.
