

PROPOSED AMENDMENT

HB 1102 # 4

DIGEST

Health services. Applies the provisions of the chapter to a student who is transitioning from applied behavioral analysis therapy services provided by a licensed or board certified behavior analyst to enrollment in a public school, and who will require the creation of a plan under an individualized education program or Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S.C. 794, while attending the public school. Provides that a determination by a licensed or board certified behavior analyst or registered behavior technician that a student requires more than 90 days of behavioral analysis therapy services must be made in consultation with a public school.
