(10) That the supplier is able to deliver or complete the subject of the consumer transaction within a stated period of time, when the supplier knows or should reasonably know the supplier could not. If no time period has been stated by the supplier, there is a presumption that the supplier has represented that the supplier will deliver or complete the subject of the consumer transaction within a reasonable time, according to the course of dealing or the usage of the trade.

(11) That the consumer will be able to purchase the subject of the consumer transaction as advertised by the supplier, if the supplier does not intend to sell it.

(12) That the replacement or repair constituting the subject of a consumer transaction can be made by the supplier for the estimate the supplier gives a customer for the replacement or repair, if the specified work is completed and:

(A) the cost exceeds the estimate by an amount equal to or greater than ten percent (10%) of the estimate;

(B) the supplier did not obtain written permission from the customer to authorize the supplier to complete the work even if the cost would exceed the amounts specified in clause (A);

(C) the total cost for services and parts for a single transaction is more than seven hundred fifty dollars ($750); and

(D) the supplier knew or reasonably should have known that the cost would exceed the estimate in the amounts specified in clause (A).

(13) That the replacement or repair constituting the subject of a consumer transaction is needed, and that the supplier disposes of the part repaired or replaced earlier than seventy-two (72) hours after both:

(A) the customer has been notified that the work has been completed; and

(B) the part repaired or replaced has been made available for examination upon the request of the customer.

(14) Engaging in the replacement or repair of the subject of a consumer transaction if the consumer has not authorized the replacement or repair, and if the supplier knows or should

(c) Any representations on or within a product or its packaging or in advertising or promotional materials which would constitute a deceptive act shall be the deceptive act both of the supplier who places such representation thereon or therein, or who authored such materials, and such other suppliers who shall state orally or in writing that such representation is true if such other supplier shall know or have reason to know that such representation was false.

(d) If a supplier shows by a preponderance of the evidence that an act resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid the error, such act shall not be deceptive within the meaning of this chapter.

(e) It shall be a defense to any action brought under this chapter that the representation constituting an alleged deceptive act was one made in good faith by the supplier without knowledge of its falsity and in reliance upon the oral or written representations of the manufacturer, the person from whom the supplier acquired the product, any testing organization, or any other person provided that the source thereof is disclosed to the consumer.

(h) For purposes of subsection (b)(18), it is an affirmative defense to any action brought under this chapter that the product has been altered by a person other than the defendant to render the product completely incapable of serving its original purpose.

DOCUMENT HAS NOT BEEN CHECKED FOR ACCURACY

1 SECTION 4. IC 24-5-0.5-4, AS AMENDED BY P.L.186-2025,
2 SECTION 133, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS
3 [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2026]: Sec. 4. (a) A person relying upon an 4 uncured or incurable deceptive act may bring an action for the damages 5 actually suffered as a consumer as a result of the deceptive act or five 6 hundred dollars ($500), whichever is greater. The court may increase 7 damages for a willful deceptive act in an amount that does not exceed 8 the greater of:

- 9 (1) three (3) times the actual damages of the consumer suffering 10 the loss; or
- 11 (2) one thousand dollars ($1,000).

12 Except as provided in subsection (k), the court may award reasonable 13 attorney's fees to the party that prevails in an action under this 14 subsection. This subsection does not apply to a consumer transaction 15 in real property, including a claim or action involving a construction
16 defect (as defined in IC 32-27-3-1(5)) brought against a construction 17 professional (as defined in IC 32-27-3-1(4)), except for purchases of 18 time shares and camping club memberships. This subsection does not 19 apply with respect to a deceptive act described in section 3(b)(20) of 20 this chapter. This subsection also does not apply to a violation of 21 IC 24-4.7, IC 24-5-12, IC 24-5-14, or IC 24-5-14.5. Actual damages 22 awarded to a person under this section have priority over any civil 23 penalty imposed under this chapter.

24 (b) Any person who is entitled to bring an action under subsection 25 (a) on the person's own behalf against a supplier for damages for a 26 deceptive act may bring a class action against such supplier on behalf 27 of any class of persons of which that person is a member and which has 28 been damaged by such deceptive act, subject to and under the Indiana
29 Rules of Trial Procedure governing class actions, except as herein
30 expressly provided. Except as provided in subsection (k), the court may 31 award reasonable attorney's fees to the party that prevails in a class 32 action under this subsection, provided that such fee shall be determined 33 by the amount of time reasonably expended by the attorney and not by 34 the amount of the judgment, although the contingency of the fee may 35 be considered. Except in the case of an extension of time granted by the 36 attorney general under IC 24-10-2-2(b) in an action subject to IC 24-10, 37 any money or other property recovered in a class action under this 38 subsection which cannot, with due diligence, be restored to consumers 39 within one (1) year after the judgment becomes final shall be returned 40 to the party depositing the same. This subsection does not apply to a 41 consumer transaction in real property, except for purchases of time
42 shares and camping club memberships. This subsection does not apply

1 with respect to a deceptive act described in section 3(b)(20) of this 2 chapter. Actual damages awarded to a class have priority over any civil 3 penalty imposed under this chapter.

4 (c) The attorney general may bring an action to enjoin an unfair,
5 abusive, or deceptive act, omission, or practice in connection with a 6 consumer transaction, including a deceptive act described in section 7 3(b)(20) of this chapter, notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b).
8 However, the attorney general may seek to enjoin patterns of incurable 9 deceptive acts with respect to consumer transactions in real property.
10 In addition, the court may:

- 11 (1) issue an injunction;
- 12 (2) order the supplier to make payment of the money unlawfully
13 received from the aggrieved consumers to be held in escrow for 14 distribution to aggrieved consumers;
- 15 (3) for a knowing violation against a senior consumer, increase 16 the amount of restitution ordered under subdivision (2) in any 17 amount up to three (3) times the amount of damages incurred or 18 value of property or assets lost;
- 19 (4) order the supplier to pay to the state the reasonable costs of 20 the attorney general's investigation and prosecution, expert fees, 21 and court fees related to the action;
- 22 (5) provide for the appointment of a receiver; and
- 23 (6) order the department of state revenue to suspend the 24 supplier's registered retail merchant certificate, subject to the 25 requirements and prohibitions contained in IC 6-2.5-8-7(a)(5), 26 if the court finds that a violation of this chapter involved the sale 27 or solicited sale of a synthetic drug (as defined in 28 IC 35-31.5-2-321), a synthetic drug lookalike substance (as 29 defined in IC 35-31.5-2-321.5 (repealed)) (before July 1, 2019), 30 a controlled substance analog (as defined in IC 35-48-1.1-8), or 31 a substance represented to be a controlled substance (as 32 described in IC 35-48-4-4.6).

33 (d) In an action under subsection (a), (b), (c), or (n) the court may 34 void or limit the application of contracts or clauses resulting from 35 deceptive acts and order restitution to be paid to aggrieved consumers.

36 (e) In any action under subsection (a) or (b), upon the filing of the 37 complaint or on the appearance of any defendant, claimant, or any 38 other party, or at any later time, the trial court, the supreme court, or the 39 court of appeals may require the plaintiff, defendant, claimant, or any 40 other party or parties to give security, or additional security, in such 41 sum as the court shall direct to pay all costs, expenses, and 42 disbursements that shall be awarded against that party or which that

1 party may be directed to pay by any interlocutory order by the final 2 judgment or on appeal.

3 (f) Any person who violates the terms of an injunction issued 4 under subsection (c) or (n) shall forfeit and pay to the state a civil 5 penalty of not more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) per 6 violation. For the purposes of this section, the court issuing an 7 injunction shall retain jurisdiction, the cause shall be continued, and 8 the attorney general acting in the name of the state may petition for 9 recovery of civil penalties. Whenever the court determines that an 10 injunction issued under subsection (c) or (n) has been violated, the 11 court shall award reasonable costs to the state.

12 (g) If a court finds any person has knowingly violated section 3 or 13 10 of this chapter, other than section 3(b)(19), 3(b)(20), or 3(b)(40) of 14 this chapter, the attorney general, in an action pursuant to subsection 15 (c), may recover from the person on behalf of the state a civil penalty 16 of a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) per violation.

17 (h) If a court finds that a person has violated section 3(b)(19) of 18 this chapter, the attorney general, in an action under subsection (c), 19 may recover from the person on behalf of the state a civil penalty as 20 follows:

21 (1) For a knowing or intentional violation, one thousand five 22 hundred dollars ($1,500).

23 (2) For a violation other than a knowing or intentional violation, 24 five hundred dollars ($500).

25 A civil penalty recovered under this subsection shall be deposited in 26 the consumer protection division telephone solicitation fund 27 established by IC 24-4.7-3-6 to be used for the administration and 28 enforcement of section 3(b)(19) of this chapter.

29 (i) A senior consumer relying upon an uncured or incurable 30 deceptive act, including an act related to hypnotism, may bring an 31 action to recover treble damages, if appropriate.

32 (j) An offer to cure is:

33 (1) not admissible as evidence in a proceeding initiated under 34 this section unless the offer to cure is delivered by a supplier to 35 the consumer or a representative of the consumer before the 36 supplier files the supplier's initial response to a complaint; and

37 (2) only admissible as evidence in a proceeding initiated under 38 this section to prove that a supplier is not liable for attorney's 39 fees under subsection (k).

40 If the offer to cure is timely delivered by the supplier, the supplier may 41 submit the offer to cure as evidence to prove in the proceeding in

(k) A supplier may not be held liable for the attorney's fees and court costs of the consumer that are incurred following the timely delivery of an offer to cure as described in subsection (j) unless the actual damages awarded, not including attorney's fees and costs, exceed the value of the offer to cure.

(l) If a court finds that a person has knowingly violated section 3(b)(20) of this chapter, the attorney general, in an action under subsection (c), may recover from the person on behalf of the state a civil penalty not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) per consumer. In determining the amount of the civil penalty in any action by the attorney general under this subsection, the court shall consider, among other relevant factors, the frequency and persistence of noncompliance by the debt collector, the nature of the noncompliance, and the extent to which the noncompliance was intentional. A person may not be held liable in any action by the attorney general for a violation of section 3(b)(20) of this chapter if the person shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error, notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid the error. A person may not be held liable in any action for a violation of this chapter for contacting a person other than the debtor, if the contact is made in compliance with the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

(m) If a court finds that a person has knowingly or intentionally violated section 3(b)(40) of this chapter, the attorney general, in an action under subsection (c), may recover from the person on behalf of the state a civil penalty in accordance with IC 24-5-14.5-12(b). As specified in IC 24-5-14.5-12(b), a civil penalty recovered under IC 24-5-14.5-12(b) shall be deposited in the consumer protection division telephone solicitation fund established by IC 24-4.7-3-6 to be used for the administration and enforcement of IC 24-5-14.5. In addition to the recovery of a civil penalty in accordance with IC 24-5-14.5-12(b), the attorney general may also recover reasonable attorney fees and court costs from the person on behalf of the state. Those funds shall also be deposited in the consumer protection division telephone solicitation fund established by IC 24-4.7-3-6.

(n) An action that arises from, or otherwise involves, an unfair, abusive, or deceptive act, omission, or practice in connection with a consumer transaction described in section 2(a)(1)(D)(i) or 2(a)(1)(D)(iii) of this chapter may be brought and enforced only by the attorney general under this subsection.  4 enforcement agency or local agency involved in the transaction, unless 5 the local unit of government served by the local law enforcement 6 agency or local agency requests the attorney general to bring and 7 enforce an action under this subsection on behalf of the local unit. In 8 addition, the court may:

- 9 (1) issue an injunction;
- 10 (2) order the supplier to make payment of the money unlawfully
 11 received from the aggrieved consumers to be held in escrow for 12 distribution to aggrieved consumers; or
