HB 1286—LS 6878/DI 149

1 [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2026]: Sec. 9. (a) If it appears from a petition
2 for an order for protection or from a petition to modify an order for 3 protection that domestic or family violence has occurred or that a
4 modification of an order for protection is required, a court may:

5 (1) without notice or hearing, immediately issue an order for 6 protection ex parte or modify an order for protection ex parte; or 7 (2) upon notice and after a hearing, whether or not a respondent
8 appears, issue or modify an order for protection.

9 If the petitioner presents evidence that a military protective order 10 is in effect for the protection of the petitioner against the 11 respondent, the court may consider this evidence and may issue an 12 order for protection ex parte or modify an order for protection ex
13 parte under subdivision (1) based upon this evidence.

14 (b) If it appears from a petition for an order for protection or from 15 a petition to modify an order for protection that harassment has 16 occurred, a court:

17 (1) may not, without notice and a hearing, issue an order for 18 protection ex parte or modify an order for protection ex parte; but 19 (2) may, upon notice and after a hearing, whether or not a
20 respondent appears, issue or modify an order for protection.

21 A court must hold a hearing under this subsection not later than thirty 22 (30) days after the petition for an order for protection or the petition to 23 modify an order for protection is filed.

24 (c) A court may grant the following relief without notice and 25 hearing in an ex parte order for protection or in an ex parte order for 26 protection modification under subsection (a):

27 (1) Enjoin a respondent from threatening to commit or 28 committing acts of domestic or family violence against a
29 petitioner and each designated family or household member.
30 (2) Prohibit a respondent from harassing, annoying, telephoning,
31 contacting, or directly or indirectly communicating with a
32 petitioner.
33 (3) Prohibit a respondent from using a tracking device (as defined 34 by IC 35-31.5-2-337.6) to determine the location of:
35 (A) the petitioner or property owned or used by the petitioner;
36 and
37 (B) any other family or household member or property owned
38 or used by the family or household member.
39 (4) Remove and exclude a respondent from the residence of a
40 petitioner, regardless of ownership of the residence.
41 (5) Order a respondent to stay away from the residence, school, or 42 place of employment of a petitioner or a specified place frequented by a petitioner and each designated family or household member.

(6) Order that a petitioner has the exclusive possession, care, custody, or control of any animal owned, possessed, kept, or cared for by the petitioner, respondent, minor child of either the petitioner or respondent, or any other family or household member.

(7) Prohibit a respondent from removing, transferring, injuring, concealing, harming, attacking, mistreating, threatening to harm, or otherwise disposing of an animal described in subdivision (6).

or otherwise disposing of an animal described in subdivision (6).
(8) Order possession and use of the residence, an automobile, and other essential personal effects, regardless of the ownership of the residence, automobile, and essential personal effects. If possession is ordered under this subdivision or subdivision (6), the court may direct a law enforcement officer to accompany a petitioner to the residence of the parties to:

(A) ensure that a petitioner is safely restored to possession of the residence, automobile, animal, and other essential personal effects; or

(B) supervise a petitioner's or respondent's removal of personal belongings and animal.

(9) Order other relief necessary to provide for the safety and welfare of a petitioner and each designated family or household member.

(d) A court may grant the following relief after notice and a hearing, whether or not a respondent appears, in an order for protection or in a modification of an order for protection:

(1) Grant the relief under subsection (c).

(2) Specify arrangements for parenting time of a minor child by a respondent and:

(A) require supervision by a third party; or

(B) deny parenting time;

if necessary to protect the safety of a petitioner or child.

(3) Order a respondent to:

(A) pay attorney's fees;

(B) pay rent or make payment on a mortgage on a petitioner's residence;

for the support of a pet

(D) reimburse a petitioner or other person for expenses related to the domestic or family violence or harassment, including:

(i) medical expenses;

26 LS 6958/DL 149

- (ii) counseling;
- (iii) shelter; and
- (iv) repair or replacement of damaged property;

E) pay the costs and expenses incurred in connection with the use of a GPS tracking device under subsection (k); or

F) pay the costs and fees incurred by a petitioner in bringing the action.

- (4) Prohibit a respondent from using or possessing a firearm, ammunition, or a deadly weapon specified by the court, and direct the respondent to surrender to a specified law enforcement agency the firearm, ammunition, or deadly weapon for the duration of the order for protection unless another date is ordered by the court.
- (5) Permit the respondent and petitioner to occupy the same location for any purpose that the court determines is legitimate or necessary. The court may impose terms and conditions upon a respondent when granting permission under this subdivision.

An order issued under subdivision (4) does not apply to a person who is exempt under 18 U.S.C. 925.

(e) The court shall:

(1) cause the order for protection to be delivered to the county sheriff for service;

(2) make reasonable efforts to ensure that the order for protection is understood by a petitioner and a respondent if present;

(3) electronically notify each law enforcement agency:

(A) required to receive notification under IC 5-2-9-6; or

(B) designated by the petitioner;

(4) transmit a copy of the order to the clerk for processing under IC 5-2-9;

(5) indicate in the order if the order and the parties meet the criteria under 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(8); and

(6) require the clerk of court to enter or provide a copy of the order to the Indiana protective order registry established by IC 5-2-9-5.5.

(f) Except as provided in subsection (g), an order for protection issued ex parte or upon notice and a hearing, or a modification of an order for protection issued ex parte or upon notice and a hearing, is effective for two (2) years after the date of issuance unless another date is ordered by the court. The sheriff of each county shall provide expedited service for an order for protection.

(g) This subsection applies to an order for protection issued ex parte or upon notice and a hearing, or to a modification of an order for protection issued ex parte or upon notice and a hearing, if:

- (1) the respondent named in the order is a sex or violent offender (as defined in IC 11-8-8-5) and is required to register as a lifetime sex or violent offender under IC 11-8-8-19; and
- (2) the petitioner was the victim of the crime that resulted in the requirement that the respondent register as a lifetime sex or violent offender under IC 11-8-8-19.

An order for protection to which this subsection applies is effective indefinitely after the date of issuance unless another date is ordered by the court. The sheriff of each county shall provide expedited service for an order for protection.

(h) A finding that domestic or family violence or harassment has occurred sufficient to justify the issuance of an order under this section means that a respondent represents a credible threat to the safety of a petitioner or a member of a petitioner's household. Upon a showing of domestic or family violence or harassment by a preponderance of the evidence, the court shall grant relief necessary to bring about a cessation of the violence or the threat of violence. The relief may include an order directing a respondent to surrender to a law enforcement officer or agency all firearms, ammunition, and deadly weapons:

- (1) in the control, ownership, or possession of a respondent; or
- (2) in the control or possession of another person on behalf of a respondent;

for the duration of the order for protection unless another date is ordered by the court.

(i) An order for custody, parenting time, or possession or control of property issued under this chapter is superseded by an order issued from a court exercising dissolution, legal separation, paternity, or guardianship jurisdiction over the parties.

(j) The fact that an order for protection is issued under this chapter does not raise an inference or presumption in a subsequent case or hearings between the parties.

(k) Upon a finding of a violation of an order for protection, the court may:

- (1) require a respondent to wear a GPS tracking device; and
- (2) prohibit the respondent from approaching or entering certain locations where the petitioner may be found.

If the court requires a respondent to wear a GPS tracking device under subdivision (1), the court shall, if available, require the respondent to wear a GPS tracking device with victim notification capabilities.

(l) The court may permit a victim, a petitioner, another person, an organization, or an agency to pay the costs and expenses incurred in

1 connection with the use of a GPS tracking device under subsection (k).

2 SECTION 3. IC 34-26-5-17, AS AMENDED BY P.L.161-2018,
3 SECTION 110, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS
4 [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2026]: Sec. 17. (a) A foreign protection order
5 is facially valid if it:

6 (1) identifies the protected person and the respondent;

7 (2) is currently in effect;

8 (3) was issued by a state, Canadian, or tribal court with 9 jurisdiction over the:

10 (A) parties; and

11 (B) subject matter;

12 under the law of the issuing state, Canada, or the Indian tribe;
13 and

14 (4) was issued after a respondent was given reasonable notice and 15 an opportunity to be heard sufficient to protect the respondent's 16 right to due process. In the case of an ex parte order, notice and 17 opportunity to be heard must be provided within the time required
18 by state, Canadian, or tribal law and within a reasonable time
19 after the order is issued sufficient to protect the respondent's due 20 process rights.

21 (b) A facially valid foreign protection order is prima facie evidence
22 of its validity. The protection order may be inscribed on a tangible
23 medium or stored in an electronic or other medium if it is retrievable
24 in perceivable form. Presentation of a certified copy of an order for 25 protection is not required for enforcement.

26 (c) Except as provided in subsection (d), a protection order that is 27 facially valid and issued by a court of a state (issuing state), Canada,
28 or an Indian tribe shall be accorded full faith and credit by Indiana
29 courts.

30 (d) A mutual foreign protection order is not entitled to full faith and 31 credit if the order is issued by a state, Canadian, or tribal court against 32 a person who has petitioned, filed a complaint, or otherwise filed a 33 written pleading for protection against a family or household member, 34 unless:

35 (1) a separate petition or motion was filed by a respondent;

36 (2) the issuing court has reviewed each motion separately and 37 granted or denied each on its individual merits; and

38 (3) separate orders were issued and the issuing court made
39 specific findings that each party was entitled to an order.

40 (e) Registration or filing of a foreign protection order is not a
41 prerequisite to enforcement of the order in Indiana, and a protection 42 order that is consistent with this section shall be accorded full faith and

1 credit notwithstanding a failure to register or file the order in Indiana.
2 However, if a petitioner wishes to register a foreign protection order in 3 Indiana, all Indiana courts of record shall accommodate the request.
4 The office of judicial administration shall develop a form to be used by 5 courts, clerks, and law enforcement agencies when a petitioner makes 6 a request to register a foreign protection order. Except for a protective 7 order issued to the Indiana protective order registry established by 8 IC 5-2-9-5.5, the courts, clerks of the courts, and sheriffs or law
9 enforcement agencies maintaining depositories shall employ the same
10 procedures required under IC 5-2-9-6 for entering, modifying, 11 extending, or terminating a foreign protection order as those used for 12 a protection order and a no contact order originating in Indiana.

13 (f) A facially valid foreign protection order shall be enforced by a 14 law enforcement officer and a state court as if it were an order
15 originating in Indiana. The order must be enforced if the foreign 16 protection order contains relief that the state courts lack the power to 17 provide in an order for protection issued in Indiana.

18 (g) An Indiana law enforcement officer:

19 (1) may not require notification, registration, or filing of a facially
20 valid foreign order for protection as a prerequisite to enforcement
21 of an order;

22 (2) if a foreign protection order is not presented, may consider 23 other information to determine under a totality of the 24 circumstances whether there is probable cause to believe that a 25 valid foreign order for protection exists; and

26 (3) who determines that an otherwise valid foreign protection
27 order cannot be enforced because a respondent has not been 28 notified or served with the order, shall:

29 (A) inform the respondent of the order;

30 (B) serve the order on the respondent;

31 (C) ensure that the order and service of the order are entered
32 into the state depository;

33 (D) allow the respondent a reasonable opportunity to comply 34 with the order before enforcing the order; and

35 (E) ensure the safety of the protected person while giving the 36 respondent the opportunity to comply with the order.

37 (h) After a foreign protective order is registered, the clerk shall enter 38 the order in the Indiana protective order registry established by 39 IC 5-2-9-5.5.
