1 issued ex parte or upon notice and a hearing, or a modification of an 2 order for protection issued ex parte or upon notice and a hearing, is 3 effective for two (2) years after the date of issuance unless another date
4 is ordered by the court. The sheriff of each county shall provide 5 expedited service for an order for protection.

6 (g) This subsection applies to an order for protection issued ex 7 parte or upon notice and a hearing, or to a modification of an order for 8 protection issued ex parte or upon notice and a hearing, if:

9 (1) the respondent named in the order is a sex or violent offender
10 (as defined in IC 11-8-8-5) and is required to register as a 11 lifetime sex or violent offender under IC 11-8-8-19; and 12 (2) the petitioner was the victim of the crime that resulted in the 13 requirement that the respondent register as a lifetime sex or 14 violent offender under IC 11-8-8-19.

15 An order for protection to which this subsection applies is effective 16 indefinitely after the date of issuance unless another date is ordered by 17 the court. The sheriff of each county shall provide expedited service for 18 an order for protection.

19 (h) A finding that domestic or family violence or harassment has 20 occurred sufficient to justify the issuance of an order under this section 21 means that a respondent represents a credible threat to the safety of a 22 petitioner or a member of a petitioner's household. Upon a showing of 23 domestic or family violence or harassment by a preponderance of the 24 evidence, the court shall grant relief necessary to bring about a 25 cessation of the violence or the threat of violence. The relief may 26 include an order directing a respondent to surrender to a law
27 enforcement officer or agency all firearms, ammunition, and deadly 28 weapons:

29 (1) in the control, ownership, or possession of a respondent; or 30 (2) in the control or possession of another person on behalf of a 31 respondent;

32 for the duration of the order for protection unless another date is 33 ordered by the court.

34 (i) An order for custody, parenting time, or possession or control 35 of property issued under this chapter is superseded by an order issued 36 from a court exercising dissolution, legal separation, paternity, or 37 guardianship jurisdiction over the parties.

38 (j) The fact that an order for protection is issued under this chapter 39 does not raise an inference or presumption in a subsequent case or 40 hearings between the parties.

41 (k) Upon a finding of a violation of an order for protection, the

1 court may:

2 (1) require a respondent to wear a GPS tracking device; and 3 (2) prohibit the respondent from approaching or entering certain 4 locations where the petitioner may be found.

5 If the court requires a respondent to wear a GPS tracking device under 6 subdivision (1), the court shall, if available, require the respondent to 7 wear a GPS tracking device with victim notification capabilities.

8 (l) The court may permit a victim, a petitioner, another person, an 9 organization, or an agency to pay the costs and expenses incurred in 10 connection with the use of a GPS tracking device under subsection (k).
