 16 term includes a person convicted in another jurisdiction who is 17 identified as a sexually violent predator under IC 11-8-8-20. The term

1 (3) commits a sex offense (as defined in IC 11-8-8-5.2) while
 2 having had a previous unrelated adjudication as a delinquent child
 3 for an act that would be a sex offense if committed by an adult, if,
 4 after considering expert testimony, a court finds by clear and 5 convincing evidence that the person is likely to commit an 6 additional sex offense; or

7 (4) commits a sex offense (as defined in IC 11-8-8-5.2) while
 8 having had a previous unrelated adjudication as a delinquent child
 9 for an act that would be a sex offense if committed by an adult, if 10 the person was required to register as a sex or violent offender
 11 under ~~IC 11-8-8-5(b)(2)~~; IC 11-8-8-5(b)(5);

12 is a sexually violent predator. Except as provided in subsection (g) or 13 (h), a person is a sexually violent predator by operation of law if an 14 offense committed by the person satisfies the conditions set forth in 15 subdivision (1) or (2) and the person was released from incarceration,
 16 secure detention, probation, or parole for the offense after June 30, 17 1994.

18 (c) This section applies whenever a court sentences a person or a 19 juvenile court issues a dispositional decree for a sex offense (as defined 20 in IC 11-8-8-5.2) for which the person is required to register with the 21 local law enforcement authority under IC 11-8-8.

22 (d) At the sentencing hearing, the court shall indicate on the record 23 whether the person has been convicted of an offense that makes the 24 person a sexually violent predator under subsection (b).

25 (e) If a person is not a sexually violent predator under subsection
 26 (b), the prosecuting attorney may request the court to conduct a hearing 27 to determine whether the person (including a child adjudicated to be a 28 delinquent child) is a sexually violent predator under subsection (a). If 29 the court grants the motion, the court shall appoint two (2)
 30 psychologists or psychiatrists who have expertise in criminal 31 behavioral disorders to evaluate the person and testify at the hearing.
 32 After conducting the hearing and considering the testimony of the two 33 (2) psychologists or psychiatrists, the court shall determine whether the 34 person is a sexually violent predator under subsection (a). A hearing 35 conducted under this subsection may be combined with the person's 36 sentencing hearing.

37 (f) If a person is a sexually violent predator:

38 (1) the person is required to register with the local law
 39 enforcement authority as provided in IC 11-8-8; and 40 (2) the court shall send notice to the department of correction.

41 (g) This subsection does not apply to a person who has two (2) or

M

1 more unrelated convictions for an offense described in IC 11-8-8-4.5
 2 for which the person is required to register under IC 11-8-8. A person
 3 who is a sexually violent predator may petition the court to consider 4 whether the person should no longer be considered a sexually violent
 5 predator. The person may file a petition under this subsection not 6 earlier than ten (10) years after:

- 7 (1) the sentencing court or juvenile court makes its determination
 8 under subsection (e); or 9 (2) the person is released from incarceration or secure detention.

10 A person may file a petition under this subsection not more than one
 11 (1) time per year. A court may dismiss a petition filed under this 12 subsection or conduct a hearing to determine if the person should no
 13 longer be considered a sexually violent predator. If the court conducts 14 a hearing, the court shall appoint two (2) psychologists or psychiatrists 15 who have expertise in criminal behavioral disorders to evaluate the 16 person and testify at the hearing. After conducting the hearing and 17 considering the testimony of the two (2) psychologists or psychiatrists, 18 the court shall determine whether the person should no longer be 19 considered a sexually violent predator under subsection (a). If a court 20 finds that the person should no longer be considered a sexually violent 21 predator, the court shall send notice to the department of correction that 22 the person is no longer considered a sexually violent predator or an 23 offender against children. Notwithstanding any other law, a condition
 24 imposed on a person due to the person's status as a sexually violent
 25 predator, including lifetime parole or GPS monitoring, does not apply 26 to a person no longer considered a sexually violent predator.

27 (h) A person is not a sexually violent predator by operation of law
 28 under subsection (b)(1) if all of the following conditions are met:

- 29 (1) The victim was not less than twelve (12) years of age at the 30 time the offense was committed.
 31 (2) The person is not more than four (4) years older than the 32 victim.
 33 (3) The relationship between the person and the victim was a
 34 dating relationship or an ongoing personal relationship. The term
 35 "ongoing personal relationship" does not include a family
 36 relationship.
 37 (4) The offense committed by the person was not any of the 38 following:
 39 (A) Rape (IC 35-42-4-1).

 41 repeal).
