1 follows:

2 (A) Each elected by the voting members of the IPPA.

3 (B) No more than two (2) at-large members may
4 represent any one (1) county within Indiana.

5 (C) Each may serve for a term of two (2) years from the
6 date of the member's election.

7 (D) Each may not serve more than three (3) consecutive
8 terms.

9 (2) At least (1) but no more than three (3) affiliated industry
10 members, as follows:

11 (A) Each elected by the voting members of the IPPA.

12 (B) Each of which represents an industry reasonably
13 affiliated with the pork industry.

14 (C) Each may serve for a term of two (2) years from the
15 date of the member's election.

16 (D) Each may not serve more than three (3) consecutive
17 terms.

18 (3) The director of the National Pork Board, who serves as 19 an ex officio member.

20 (4) The director of the National Pork Producers Council,
21 who serves as an ex officio member.

22 (5) One (1) member of the board of directors of the IPPA
23 appointed by the dean of agriculture at Purdue University,
24 whose term expires if the dean appoints a replacement.

25 (6) One (1) member of the board of directors of the IPPA
26 appointed by the director of INPAC, whose term expires if 27 the INPAC director appoints a replacement.

28 (7) One (1) member who is the preceding president of the 29 IPPA, whose term as a member of the board of directors
30 expires when the current president's term concludes.

31 (8) The executive director of the IPPA, who serves as an ex
32 officio member.

33 (9) One (1) appointee of the chief executive officer of the 34 Indiana Soybean Alliance, whose term as a member of the 35 board of directors expires if the chief executive officer of the 36 Indiana Soybean Alliance appoints a replacement.

37 (c) In addition to the requirements under subsection (b), a
38 member of the board of directors must meet the following criteria:

39 (1) Be a registered voter in Indiana.

40 (2) Be at least eighteen (18) years of age.

41 (3) Be a producer.

42 (d) The IPPA shall elect a president, vice president, secretary,

1 treasurer, and any other officers deemed necessary by the board
2 of directors.

3 (e) One-third (1/3) of the members of the board of directors
4 constitutes a quorum. An affirmative vote of at least a majority of 5 the quorum is required for the board of directors to act.

6 (f) The board of directors shall meet at least three (3) times in 7 each calendar year:

8 (1) at the call of the president; or

9 (2) at the request of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the 10 board of directors.

11 (g) Each member of the board of directors who is not a state
12 employee or a member of the general assembly is entitled to 13 reimbursement for mileage, travel expenses, and other expenses
14 actually incurred in connection with the board member's duties in 15 accordance with the IPPA's travel policy. Except as provided 16 subsection (h) of this chapter, the members of the board of 17 directors are not entitled to a salary or per diem as consideration
18 for their service as a member of the board of directors.
19 Reimbursements under this subsection must be paid from funds of 20 the IPPA.

21 (h) Each member of the board of directors who is a state
22 employee is entitled to reimbursement for traveling expenses as 23 provided under IC 4-13-1-4 and other expenses actually incurred
24 in connection with the member's duties as provided in the state
25 policies and procedures established by the Indiana department of 26 administration and approved by the budget agency.
27 Reimbursements under this subsection must be paid from 28 appropriations made to the legislative council or the legislative 29 services agency.

30 (i) A board member continues in office until a successor who 31 meets the applicable qualifications set forth in subsection (b) is 32 elected or appointed.

33 (j) If a vacancy occurs on the board of directors, the 34 appointing authority that appointed the member whose position is 35 vacant shall appoint an individual to fill the vacancy.

36 (k) The members of the board of directors must be elected by 37 a majority vote of the voting members of IPPA at the annual 38 meeting.

39 Sec. 24. (a) When necessary, the IPPA may appoint an 40 individual who:

41 (1) holds an office of importance to the pork industry; or

42 (2) has special expertise concerning the pork industry;

to participate in the work of the IPPA.

(b) An individual appointed under subsection (a) may not participate in votes taken by the IPPA. However, the appointed individual is eligible for reimbursement for travel expenses in the same manner as IPPA's board members under section 23(g) of this chapter.

(c) An individual appointed under this section serves a term of one (1) year but may be reappointed for additional terms.

Sec. 25. The IPPA shall do the following:

(1) Employ personnel and contract for services that are necessary for the proper implementation of this chapter.

(2) Bond the IPPA treasurer and any other person as necessary to ensure adequate protection of funds received and administered by the IPPA.

(3) Authorize the expenditure of funds and the contracting of expenditures to conduct proper activities under this chapter.

(4) Annually establish priorities and prepare and approve a budget consistent with the estimated resources of the IPPA and the scope of this chapter.

(5) Annually provide:

(A) an activities report to the legislative council in an electronic format under IC 5-14-6; and

(B) an independent audit report to the state board of accounts.

(6) Procure and evaluate data and information necessary for the proper implementation of this chapter.

(7) Formulate and execute assessment procedures and methods of collection.

(8) Receive and investigate complaints and violations of this chapter.

(9) Take necessary enforcement action against an individual who violates this chapter.

(10) Maintain bylaws and operating procedures governing operations of the IPPA and the administration of funds collected under this chapter.

(11) Keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the IPPA and have the receipts and disbursements audited annually by a certified public accountant.

(12) Take any other action necessary to properly implement this chapter.

(13) Comply with the requirements under IC 5-14-1.5.

1       Sec. 26. (a) A producer operating in Indiana that does any of 2       the following shall pay an assessment:

- 3           (1) Raises and sells a porcine animal as a feeder pig.
 4           (2) Raises and sells a porcine animal for slaughter.
 5           (3) Raises a porcine animal, slaughters the porcine animal,
 6           and sells the pork.
 7           (4) Raises a porcine animal for breeding stock.

8           (b) A producer is exempt from paying an assessment on an 9       animal if the producer demonstrates to the IPPA board of 10      directors through appropriate documentation that an assessment
 11      was previously paid on the animal in question.

12       Sec. 27. (a) The first purchaser shall collect an assessment 13       equal to thirty-five cents ($0.35) per one hundred dollars ($100) of 14       market value.

15           (b) The first purchaser may only impose and collect an 16       assessment on a porcine animal or a pork product once.

17           (c) Only the general assembly may change the rate of the 18       assessment imposed by this section.

19           (d) The first purchaser of a porcine animal or a pork product
 20       shall deduct the assessment on the porcine animal or pork product 21       from the money to be paid to the producer or importer based on 22       the sale of the porcine animal or pork product. A first purchaser
 23       shall accumulate assessments collected under this section
 24       throughout each of the following periods:

- 25           (1) January, February, and March.
 26           (2) April, May, and June.
 27           (3) July, August, and September.
 28           (4) October, November, and December.

29           (e) Not more than thirty (30) days after the end of each period,
 30       the first purchaser shall remit to the IPPA all assessments collected
 31       during the period in a manner prescribed by the IPPA.

32           (f) The assessment on the sale of the porcine animal or pork 33       product must occur at the time of first purchase as the payment for 34       the porcine animal or pork product is received by the producer or 35       importer.

36       Sec. 28. (a) The IPPA shall pay all expenses incurred under
 37       this chapter with money from the assessments remitted to the IPPA
 38       under this chapter.

39           (b) The IPPA may invest all money the IPPA receives under 40       this chapter, including gifts or grants that are given for the express 41       purpose of implementing this chapter, in the same way allowed by 42       law for public funds.

1 (c) The IPPA may expend money from assessments and from
 2 investment income not needed for expenses for promotion and 3 research.

4 (d) The IPPA may not use money received, collected, or 5 accrued under this chapter for any purpose other than the 6 purposes authorized by this chapter. The amount of money
 7 expended on administering this chapter in the IPPA's fiscal year
 8 may not exceed an amount deemed reasonable by the IPPA to 9 enable it to exercise its powers and perform its duties in 10 accordance with this chapter, including the financing of certain 11 plans and projects.

12 (e) The IPPA shall use eighty percent (80%) of the assessment 13 funds collected under section 27 of this chapter to carry out the 14 functions of the National Pork Board that is no longer operating.

15 Sec. 29. (a) Assessments collected by the IPPA under the 16 program are subject to refund requests by a producer if the 17 producer requests a refund under the procedure established by the 18 IPPA.

19 (b) A producer's application for a refund under this section
 20 must be made to the IPPA not more than one hundred eighty (180)
 21 days after the assessment is deducted from the market value of the 22 porcine animal or pork product.

23 (c) If a refund is due under this section, the IPPA shall remit
 24 the refund to the producer not later than thirty (30) days after the 25 date the producer's completed application and proof of assessment
 26 are received.

27 Sec. 30. (a) A first purchaser shall keep detailed records of all
 28 assessments collected and remitted under this chapter for at least 29 three (3) years.

30 (b) Upon request, a first purchaser shall supply the IPPA with 31 any information from records kept under subsection (a).

32 (c) The IPPA may periodically audit a first purchaser's
 33 checkoff assessment and remittance records kept under subsection

34 (a). An audit must be conducted by:

- 35 (1) a certified public accountant of the IPPA's choosing; or
- 36 (2) an auditor who is familiar with the:

- 37 (A) storage;
- 38 (B) conditioning;
- 39 (C) shipping; and
- 40 (D) handling;

41 of agricultural commodities. The costs of the audit shall be paid by
 42 the IPPA.

1       Sec. 31. (a) If a first purchaser fails to remit the assessments
 2       collected during a period specified in section 29 of this chapter not
 3       more than thirty (30) days after the end of the period, the IPPA
 4       shall contact the first purchaser and allow the first purchaser to 5       present comments to the IPPA concerning:

- 6               (1) the status and amount of the assessments due; and 7               (2) reasons why the IPPA should not bring legal action
 8               against the first purchaser.

9       (b) After allowing a first purchaser the opportunity to present
 10       comments, the IPPA:

- 11               (1) may adjust the amount of the assessments due, if the first 12               purchaser's comments reveal that the IPPA's figure is 13               inaccurate;

- 14               (2) may assess a penalty against the first purchaser;

- 15               (3) shall:

16                       (A) assess a fee for an unpaid assessment due to the 17                       IPPA from a person responsible for remitting 18                       assessments at the rate of two percent (2%) of the 19                       amount of the unpaid assessment each month, beginning
 20                       with the day following the date the assessment is due 21                       under this subsection; and

22                       (B) if there is any remaining amount due after the 23                       assessment of the fee under clause (A), assess a fee at the 24                       same rate on the corresponding day of each month
 25                       thereafter until the entire amount of the unpaid
 26                       assessment is paid;

- 27               (4) shall compute the amounts payable on unpaid
 28               assessments under this section monthly and include any 29               unpaid late charges previously applied under this section; 30               and

- 31               (5) shall determine the date of a payment for purposes of this 32               subsection by the postmark applied to the remitting envelope
 33               or date Automated Clearing House (ACH) transfer is 34               originated.

35       (c) If a first purchaser fails to remit assessments after being 36       allowed to present comments under subsection (a) or to pay any 37       penalty assessed under subsection (b), the IPPA may bring a civil 38       action against the first purchaser in a circuit, superior, or 39       municipal court of any county. The action must be tried and a 40       judgment rendered as in any other proceeding for the collection of 41       a debt. In an action under this subsection, the IPPA may obtain:

- 42               (1) a judgment in the amount of all unremitted assessments

1 and any unpaid penalty; and

2 (2) an award of the costs of bringing the action.

3 Sec. 32. (a) The IPPA may not use proceeds of the assessment
4 collected under this chapter to influence legislation or 5 governmental action or policy.

6 (b) The IPPA may not use proceeds of the assessment collected
7 under this chapter to communicate information related to the:

8 (1) conduct;

9 (2) implementation; or

10 (3) results;

11 of promotion and research activities to appropriate government
12 officials.

13 Sec. 33. (a) If a person fails to discharge a duty imposed by this 14 chapter other than remitted assessments, the IPPA shall allow the 15 person an opportunity to present comments to the IPPA
16 concerning reasons why the IPPA should not bring legal action
17 against the person.

18 (b) If it is necessary to obtain compliance with this chapter, the 19 IPPA may bring an action against the person in a circuit, superior,
20 or municipal court of any county seeking an injunction mandating
21 compliance and any other appropriate legal remedies.

22 (c) In an action under this section, the IPPA may be granted
23 injunctive relief without establishing the absence of an adequate
24 remedy at law.
