- 1 (A) execute a bail bond with sufficient solvent sureties;
 2 (B) deposit cash or securities in an amount equal to the bail;
 3 (C) execute a bond secured by real estate in the county,
 4 where thirty-three hundredths (0.33) of the true tax value

 7 (D) post a real estate bond; or 8 (E) perform any combination of the requirements described 9 in clauses (A) through (D).

10 If the court requires the defendant to deposit cash or cash and 11 another form of security as bail, the court may, subject to 12 subsection (h), require the defendant and each person who 13 makes the deposit on behalf of the defendant to execute an 14 agreement that allows the court, without holding an indigency
 15 hearing, to retain all or a part of the cash to pay publicly paid 16 costs of representation and fines, costs, fees, and restitution that 17 the court may order the defendant to pay if the defendant is 18 convicted. Before execution of the agreement, the defendant or 19 person who makes the deposit on behalf of the defendant shall 20 be advised that, upon conviction of the defendant, the court may 21 retain from the cash deposited as bail all or a part of the cash to

 24 the defendant is convicted. The defendant must also pay the fee
 25 required by subsection (d).

 29 (10%) of the bail; and
 30 (B) an agreement that allows the court to retain all or a part 31 of the cash or securities to pay fines, costs, fees, and 32 restitution that the court may order the defendant to pay if 33 the defendant is convicted.

34 A portion of the deposit, not to exceed ten percent (10%) of the 35 monetary value of the deposit or fifty dollars ($50), whichever is 36 the lesser amount, may be retained as an administrative fee. The 37 clerk shall also retain from the deposit under this subdivision
 38 fines, costs, fees, and restitution as ordered by the court, publicly 39 paid costs of representation that shall be disposed of in 40 accordance with subsection (b), and the fee required by 41 subsection (d). In the event of the posting of a real estate bond,

 2 foreclosed for the payment of fines, costs, fees, or restitution.
 3 The individual posting bail for the defendant or the defendant

 9 associations, and residence of the defendant during the period of 10 release.
- 11 (4) Except as provided in section 3.6 of this chapter, require the 12 defendant to refrain from any direct or indirect contact with an 13 individual and, if the defendant has been charged with an offense
 14 under IC 35-46-3, any animal belonging to the individual,
 15 including if the defendant has not been released from lawful 16 detention.
- 17 (5) Place the defendant under the reasonable supervision of a 18 probation officer, pretrial services agency, or other appropriate 19 public official. If the court places the defendant under the 20 supervision of a probation officer or pretrial services agency, the 21 court shall determine whether the defendant must pay the pretrial
 22 services fee under section 3.3 of this chapter.
- 23 (6) Release the defendant into the care of a qualified person or 24 organization responsible for supervising the defendant and 25 assisting the defendant in appearing in court. The supervisor 26 shall maintain reasonable contact with the defendant in order to 27 assist the defendant in making arrangements to appear in court
 28 and, where appropriate, shall accompany the defendant to court.
 29 The supervisor need not be financially responsible for the 30 defendant.
- 31 (7) Release the defendant on personal recognizance unless:
 32 (A) the state presents evidence relevant to a risk by the

- 1 (10) Impose any other reasonable restrictions designed to assure 2 the defendant's presence in court or the physical safety of 3 another person or the community.
- 4 (b) Within thirty (30) days after disposition of the charges against 5 the defendant, the court that admitted the defendant to bail shall order 6 the clerk to remit the amount of the deposit remaining under subsection
 7 (a)(2) to the person who made the deposit. The portion of the deposit 8 that is not remitted to the person who made the deposit shall be 9 deposited by the clerk in the supplemental public defender services
 10 fund established under IC 33-40-3.
- 11 (c) For purposes of subsection (b), "disposition" occurs when the 12 indictment or information is dismissed or the defendant is acquitted or 13 convicted of the charges.
- 14 (d) Except as provided in subsection (e), the clerk of the court

 24 subsection (a)(2).

 26 may collect the bail posted under this section. The county sheriff shall 27 remit the bail to the clerk of the court by the following business day 28 and remit monthly the five dollar ($5) special death benefit fee to the 29 county auditor.
- 30 (f) When a court imposes a condition of bail described in 31 subsection (a)(4):
- 32 (1) the clerk of the court shall comply with IC 5-2-9; and

1 (b) For a charge other than murder, on motion of the state at 2 or before an initial hearing, the court shall hold a hearing to 3 determine whether an arrestee shall be denied bail. The state may 4 request detention of the arrestee at a later date if it files a verified 5 petition alleging the existence of new information that was 6 unknown or unavailable at the time of the initial hearing.

7 (c) The court shall hold the bail hearing described in 8 subsection (b) not later than forty-eight (48) hours from the time
 9 of filing, unless doing so is impracticable. However, the court may 10 grant a continuance of:

11 (1) not more than five (5) days, if requested by the arrestee;

12 and

13 (2) not more than three (3) days, if requested by the state.

14 Computation of time under this subsection does not include
 15 Saturday, Sunday, or any day on which a legal holiday is observed
 16 for state employees as provided under IC 1-1-9.

17 (d) At the bail hearing, the arrestee has the right to be 18 represented by counsel and, if the arrestee is indigent, to have 19 counsel appointed. Except as provided in subsection (e), the 20 arrestee also has the right to testify, to present evidence, and to 21 cross-examine witnesses.

22 (e) An arrestee may compel the victim to testify at a hearing
 23 under this section only if the arrestee files a verified petition
 24 requesting the victim's presence and the court grants the petition.
 25 The court may grant the petition if the ends of justice so require 26 and if the court finds the arrestee will be materially prejudiced if 27 the victim does not appear. Cross-examination of the victim for the 28 purpose of impeachment is insufficient to compel the presence of 29 the victim. In deciding whether to compel the appearance of the 30 victim, the court shall consider the emotional and physical well 31 being of the victim.

32 (f) In making a determination of whether to deny bail, a court
 33 shall consider the following factors, in addition to any other fact or

(k) A court may reconsider an order granting or denying bail under this section if, at any time before trial, the court is made aware of information that was unknown or unobtainable at the time of a previous hearing and that has a material bearing on the issue of whether there are conditions of release that will reasonably assure the safety of any other person or the community. The court may order a new hearing under this section upon motion of the state, the arrestee, or on its own motion.

- (1) The arrestee is charged with murder or treason.
- (2) The arrestee is on pretrial release not related to the incident that is the basis for the present arrest.
