- (5) Permit the respondent and petitioner to occupy the same location for any purpose that the court determines is legitimate or necessary. The court may impose terms and conditions upon a respondent when granting permission under this subdivision.

An order issued under subdivision (4) does not apply to a person who is exempt under 18 U.S.C. 925.

(e) The court shall:

(1) cause the order for protection to be delivered to the county sheriff for service;

(2) make reasonable efforts to ensure that the order for protection is understood by a petitioner and a respondent if present;

f) Except as provided in subsection (g), an order for protection issued ex parte or upon notice and a hearing, or a modification of an order for protection issued ex parte or upon notice and a hearing, is effective for two (2) years after the date of issuance unless another date is ordered by the court. The sheriff of each county shall provide expedited service for an order for protection.

(g) This subsection applies to an order for protection issued ex parte or upon notice and a hearing, or to a modification of an order for

1 protection issued ex parte or upon notice and a hearing, if:
2 (1) the respondent named in the order is a sex or violent offender
3 (as defined in IC 11-8-8-5) and is required to register as a lifetime
4 sex or violent offender under IC 11-8-8-19; and

6 requirement that the respondent register as a lifetime sex or

10 the court. The sheriff of each county shall provide expedited service for 11 an order for protection.

12 (h) A finding that domestic or family violence or harassment has 13 occurred sufficient to justify the issuance of an order under this section
14 means that a respondent represents a credible threat to the safety of a 15 petitioner or a member of a petitioner's household. Upon a showing of 16 domestic or family violence or harassment by a preponderance of the 17 evidence, the court shall grant relief necessary to bring about a
18 cessation of the violence or the threat of violence. The relief may 19 include an order directing a respondent to surrender to a law
20 enforcement officer or agency all firearms, ammunition, and deadly
21 weapons:

22 (1) in the control, ownership, or possession of a respondent; or

28 property issued under this chapter is superseded by an order issued
29 from a court exercising dissolution, legal separation, paternity, or 30 guardianship jurisdiction over the parties.

31 (j) The fact that an order for protection is issued under this chapter
32 does not raise an inference or presumption in a subsequent case or 33 hearings between the parties.

34 (k) Upon a finding of a violation of an order for protection, the court
35 may:
36 (1) require a respondent to wear a GPS tracking device; and 37 (2) prohibit the respondent from approaching or entering certain
38 locations where the petitioner may be found.

39 If the court requires a respondent to wear a GPS tracking device under 41 wear a GPS tracking device with victim notification capabilities.

42 (l) The court may permit a victim, a petitioner, another person, an

1 organization, or an agency to pay the costs and expenses incurred in
2 connection with the use of a GPS tracking device under subsection (k).
