7 JULY 1, 2026]: Sec. 3. (a) A supplier may not commit an unfair,
8 abusive, or deceptive act, omission, or practice in connection with a
9 consumer transaction. Such an act, omission, or practice by a supplier
10 is a violation of this chapter whether it occurs before, during, or after 11 the transaction. An act, omission, or practice prohibited by this section 12 includes both implicit and explicit misrepresentations.

13 (b) Without limiting the scope of subsection (a), the following
14 acts, and the following representations as to the subject matter of a 15 consumer transaction, made orally, in writing, or by electronic 16 communication, by a supplier, are deceptive acts:

17 (1) That such subject of a consumer transaction has sponsorship,
18 approval, performance, characteristics, accessories, uses, or 19 benefits it does not have which the supplier knows or should 20 reasonably know it does not have.

21 (2) That such subject of a consumer transaction is of a particular 22 standard, quality, grade, style, or model, if it is not and if the 23 supplier knows or should reasonably know that it is not.

24 (3) That such subject of a consumer transaction is new or 25 unused, if it is not and if the supplier knows or should reasonably
26 know that it is not.

27 (4) That such subject of a consumer transaction will be supplied
28 to the public in greater quantity than the supplier intends or 29 reasonably expects.

30 (5) That replacement or repair constituting the subject of a
31 consumer transaction is needed, if it is not and if the supplier
32 knows or should reasonably know that it is not.

33 (6) That a specific price advantage exists as to such subject of a
34 consumer transaction, if it does not and if the supplier knows or 35 should reasonably know that it does not.

36 (7) That the supplier has a sponsorship, approval, or affiliation
37 in such consumer transaction the supplier does not have, and 38 which the supplier knows or should reasonably know that the 39 supplier does not have.

40 (8) That such consumer transaction involves or does not involve
41 a warranty, a disclaimer of warranties, or other rights, remedies,
42 or obligations, if the representation is false and if the supplier knows or should reasonably know that the representation is false.

(9) That the consumer will receive a rebate, discount, or other benefit as an inducement for entering into a sale or lease in return for giving the supplier the names of prospective consumers or otherwise helping the supplier to enter into other consumer transactions, if earning the benefit, rebate, or discount is contingent upon the occurrence of an event subsequent to the time the consumer agrees to the purchase or lease.

(10) That the supplier is able to deliver or complete the subject of the consumer transaction within a stated period of time, when the supplier knows or should reasonably know the supplier could not. If no time period has been stated by the supplier, there is a presumption that the supplier has represented that the supplier will deliver or complete the subject of the consumer transaction within a reasonable time, according to the course of dealing or the usage of the trade.

(11) That the consumer will be able to purchase the subject of the consumer transaction as advertised by the supplier, if the supplier does not intend to sell it.

(12) That the replacement or repair constituting the subject of a consumer transaction can be made by the supplier for the estimate the supplier gives a customer for the replacement or repair, if the specified work is completed and:

- (A) the cost exceeds the estimate by an amount equal to or greater than ten percent (10%) of the estimate;
- (B) the supplier did not obtain written permission from the customer to authorize the supplier to complete the work even if the cost would exceed the amounts specified in clause (A);
