(b) For purposes of this section, "taxpayer" means an individual subject to taxation under this article.

(c) For purposes of this section, "theft" means:

(1) an event for which a taxpayer would have been permitted a deduction as a theft loss under Section 165(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (as in effect on January 1, 2017); and

(2) the event was either:

(A) a distribution from the taxpayer's qualifying account; or

(B) a sale, exchange, or liquidation of the taxpayer's stocks, bonds, certificates of deposit, or similar instruments, regardless of whether these were held in a qualifying account; followed by a payment to another individual or entity within sixty (60) days of the distribution, sale, exchange, or liquidation, and for which the distribution, sale, exchange, or liquidation was induced by the individual or entity.

(d) For purposes of this section, "theft loss" means the amount that an individual:

- (1) would have been permitted to deduct under Section 165(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (as in effect on January 1, 2017) as the result of a theft, reduced as provided under Section 168(h)(1) and Section 168(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code (as in effect on January 1, 2017); and
- (2) was not permitted to deduct in determining the individual's federal adjusted gross income under Section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code.

been included in the taxpayer's Indiana adjusted gross income.

(e) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2023, a taxpayer is entitled to a deduction from the taxpayer's adjusted gross income for a taxable year if the taxpayer:

(1) incurred a loss as the result of a theft during the taxable year; and

year, and
(2) as a result of the theft, had federal gross income for the taxable year that would not have been included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year under Section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code if the theft had not occurred or been induced.

(f) The amount of the deduction for a taxable year is the lesser

1       of:

2           (1) the amount of the theft loss; or 3           (2) the amount reported in the taxpayer's adjusted gross
4           income under IC 6-3-1-3.5(a) for the taxable year that 5           resulted from the theft or inducement of theft.

6           (g) A taxpayer wishing to claim a deduction under this section 7           must first apply to the department for certification of the 8           deduction and provide all information requested by the 9           department relating to the theft to the department prior to 10           claiming the deduction under this section. The following apply:

11           (1) Upon receipt of a taxpayer's application, the department
12           shall determine the amount of the deduction for theft losses 13           that are allowable, if any, under this section and provide 14           notice of the determination and certification to the taxpayer.

15           (2) A taxpayer may claim the deduction on the taxpayer's 16           state tax return or returns only after the department's 17           determination and only up to the amount certified by the 18           department as an allowable deduction.

19           (3) If a taxpayer disagrees with the department's 20           determination of a theft loss deduction, the taxpayer may 21           protest the determination of the loss in the same manner and 22           under the same time periods as a refund denial under 23           IC 6-8.1-9-1.

24           (4) An application under this section must be filed on or 25           before the date of the last day that a refund for the taxable 26           year can be filed under IC 6-8.1-9-1. An application under 27           this section shall be treated as an approved extension of the 28           period for a refund claim that expires thirty (30) days after 29           the department's determination under this subsection, 30           including any protest and appeal. An extension under this 31           subsection is only for the amount of refund that results from 32           a deduction under this section.

33           (h) For purposes of this section:

34           (1) any amounts that an individual received as insurance 35           payments, reimbursement, or other similar payments in 36           recovery for a theft loss during the taxable year are not 37           deductible under this section; and

38           (2) to the extent that amounts in subdivision (1) are received 39           in a subsequent taxable year, the individual shall report the 40           amount received as an addition in determining adjusted
41           gross income under IC 6-3-1-3.5(a) for purposes of adjusted 42           gross income tax in the year in which the amount is received,

1                   but only to the extent that the deduction under this section 2                   would have been reduced in the taxable year of the theft had 3                   the recovery amount been received in the taxable year of the 4                   theft. Any recovery required to be included in Indiana 5                   adjusted gross income as a result of this section shall not be 6                   an addback for purposes of section 2.5 or 2.6 of this chapter.

7                   (i) If a taxpayer claims a deduction under this section for a 8                   taxable year beginning before January 1, 2026, the taxpayer claims 9                   a refund as a result of the deduction, and interest is due on the 10                  refund under IC 6-8.1-9-2(d), then the amount of interest due on 11                  the refund shall be computed from the latest of:

12                  (1) April 15, 2026;
13                  (2) the date the department issues the determination under 14                  subsection (g); or 15                  (3) the date determined under IC 6-8.1-9-2(d).

16                  SECTION 2. An emergency is declared for this act.
