

PROPOSED AMENDMENT

SB 251 # 4

DIGEST

Federal highway administration funding. Provides that the budget director shall review and determine before December 31, 2026, whether federal highway administration funding to the state will or will not be reduced due to the application of certain administrative driver's license suspension provisions as amended by the bill. Requires the budget director to notify the budget committee of the determination and those provisions may not be implemented until after budget committee review.
