

PROPOSED AMENDMENT

SB 282 # 3

DIGEST

Compounding removal; medical spas. Removes language concerning compounding limitations. Applies definitions concerning pharmacies and pharmacists to the chapter on medical spas. Amends the definition of "medical spa". Changes information that must be included in an application for registration as a medical spa. Changes references from "responsible person" to "responsible practitioner". Specifies that a responsible practitioner who has prescriptive authority must be physically present at the medical spa. Allows for the suspension of a medical spa's registration in accordance with health professions' standard of practice statute.
