6	A JOINT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF
7	MONTANA URGING CONGRESS TO CLARIFY THAT THE RIGHTS PROTECTED UNDER THE UNITED
8	STATES CONSTITUTION ARE THE RIGHTS OF HUMAN BEINGS AND NOT THE RIGHTS OF
9	CORPORATIONS; PROVIDING THAT GOVERNMENTS MAY AND SHALL REGULATE CAMPAIGN
10	CONTRIBUTIONS AND EXPENDITURES TO PROTECT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE FROM CORRUPTION
11	AND UNDUE OR DISPROPORTIONATE INFLUENCE IN ELECTIONS AND GOVERNMENT; AND ASKING
12	THAT CONGRESS PROPOSE A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO PROVE THIS CLARIFICATION.
14	WHEREAS, neither the Constitution of the United States nor any of its several amendments make any
15	reference to corporations, unions, or other artificial, government-created entities, and the rights set forth in the
16	Constitution of the United States and its several amendments were originally conceived as inalienable rights
17	belonging inherently to human beings only; and
18	WHEREAS, in a number of cases, the Supreme Court of the United States has held that the right to
19	free speech recognized in the Constitution of the United States also belongs to corporations, unions, political
20	action committees, and other artificial entities; and
21	WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of the United States has also held that certain types of regulation of
22	campaign finance impermissibly abridge the right to free speech by human beings, corporations, unions,
23	political action committees, and other artificial entities, which limits the right of the American people to regulate
24	human beings, corporations, unions, political action committees, and other artificial entities through federal,
25	state, or local law; and
26	WHEREAS, the Supreme Court decisions and the lower court decisions predicated on the Supreme
27	Court decisions allow human beings, corporations, unions, political action committees, and other artificial
28	entities to spend virtually unlimited amounts of money in support of or against candidates and ballot measures,

1	undercutting the rights of citizens to prevent corruption and enjoy equal and meaningful participation in the
2	democratic process; and

WHEREAS, this undermines public confidence in the democratic process and democratic institutions of our nation; and

WHEREAS, the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act, introduced with bipartisan support by Senator John McCain of Arizona and Senator Russ Feingold of Wisconsin and passed in 2002 with the intent to preserve the integrity of the United States' electoral system and reduce the role of money and corruption in politics, has been undermined by the decisions of the Supreme Court; and

WHEREAS, the unique history of corrupt elections in Montana during the War of the Copper Kings prompted the citizens of Montana to pass the Corrupt Practices Act of 1912 by initiative, with over 76% of the vote and a majority in every county, to take money out of politics. For nearly 100 years, the Act prohibited corporate contributions and expenditures and limited those of individuals until the 2010 United States Supreme Court case Citizens United v. FEC, 558 U.S. 310, and following decisions struck down those protections; and WHEREAS, Montanans passed Initiative No. 166 in 2012 with 75% of the vote and a majority in every county, which asserted that "the people of Montana establish that there should be a level playing field in

WHEREAS, Initiative No. 166 asserted that the people of Montana regard money as property and not as free speech and regard the rights under the United States Constitution as rights belonging to human beings; and campaign spending, in part by prohibiting corporate campaign contributions and expenditures and by limiting

WHEREAS, the impact of Citizens United on Montana elections is best demonstrated by the United States Senate races from 2006 to 2024, in which total spending, including outside groups, in 2006 was $17.6 million before the Citizens United decision and jumped to $50 million in 2012, to $63 million in 2018, and was approximately $300 million in 2024; and

WHEREAS, the decisions of the Supreme Court have undermined the will of the Montana people; and WHEREAS, large amounts of outside spending by corporations, political action committees, super political action committees, and others, often with untraceable sources, has created a crisis in Montana elections, increasing partisanship, dividing Montanans, and making it more difficult for Montanans to discern political spending in elections"; and

- The State of Montana requests that Congress propose an amendment to the Constitution of the United States that confirms that:

  - (1) the rights protected by the Constitution of the United States are rights belonging to human beings only;
    - any entity, including any organization or association of one or more persons, established or allowed by the laws of any state, the United States, or any foreign state, may not have rights under the Constitution of the United States separate from the rights of the entity's individual human members and is subject to regulation by the people through federal, state, or local law;
    - (3) federal, state, and local government shall regulate, limit, or prohibit contributions and expenditures, including a candidate's own contributions and expenditures, to ensure that all citizens have access to the political process and that no person or entity gains, as a result of their access to or ownership of money, substantially more access or ability to influence in any way the election of any candidate for public office or any ballot measure;
    - (4) federal, state, and local governments shall require that the contributions and expenditures be publicly disclosed; and
    - (5) the regulation and disclosure requirements enacted and performed in accordance with the intents and purposes of this amendment may not be construed as a violation of the Constitution of the United States.
    - BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the United States Congress is requested to send the amendment to the states for ratification.
- BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of State is directed to provide copies of this resolution to Montana's senators and representatives in Congress.
