1 quarters with an individual of the opposite sex on a school-sponsored trip. A child whose parent does not
2 provide consent must be permitted to attend the trip and must be provided with reasonable accommodations
3 that do not require the child to share a room or sleeping quarters with an individual of the opposite sex.

4 (3) Except for law enforcement, an employee of a government entity may not encourage or coerce
5 a child to withhold information from the child's parent and may not withhold from a child's parent information
6 that is relevant to the physical, emotional, or mental health of a child.

7 (4) This section may not be construed as invalidating the provisions of Title 41, chapter 3, or 8 modifying the burden of proof at any stage of the proceedings under Title 41, chapter 3.

9 (5) When a parent's fundamental rights protected by 40-6-702, 40-6-703, 40-6-707, 41-1-402, 41-
10 1-403, 41-1-405, and this section are violated, a parent may assert that violation as a claim or defense in an 11 administrative or judicial proceeding and may obtain appropriate relief without regard to whether the proceeding
12 is brought by or in the name of a government entity, a private person, or any other party. The prevailing party in 13 an action filed pursuant to 40-6-702, 40-6-703, 40-6-707, 41-1-402, 41-1-403, 41-1-405, and this section is 14 entitled to reasonable attorney fees and costs.

15 (6) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

16 (a) "Child" means an individual under 18 years of age.

17 (b) "Education record" means attendance records, test scores of school-administered tests and
18 statewide assessments, grades, school-sponsored or extracurricular activity or club participation, email
19 accounts, online or virtual accounts or data, disciplinary records, counseling records, psychological records,
20 applications for admission, health and immunization information including any medical records maintained by a
21 health clinic or medical facility operated or controlled by the school district or located on the district property,
22 teacher and counselor evaluations, and reports of behavioral patterns.

23 (c) "Government entity" means the state, its political subdivisions, or any department, agency,
24 commission, board, authority, institution, or office of the state, including a municipality, county, consolidated
25 municipal-county government, school district, or other special district.

26 (d) "Parent" means a biological parent of a child, an adoptive parent of a child, or an individual who 27 has been granted the exclusive right and authority over the welfare of a child under state law.

28 (e) ~~"Substantial burden" means an action that directly or indirectly constrains, inhibits, curtails, or~~

1     denies the right of a parent to direct the upbringing, education, health care, and mental health of the parent's
2     child. The term includes but is not limited to:

3         (i)     withholding benefits;
4         (ii)    assessing criminal, civil, or administrative penalties; or 5         (iii)    exclusion from a government program."

6

7     Section 2. Section 40-6-703, MCA, is amended to read:

8     "40-6-703. Parental involvement in education. (1) The board of trustees of a school district, in 9     consultation with parents, teachers, and administrators, shall develop and adopt a policy to promote the 10    involvement of parents of children enrolled in the school district, including:

11             (a)     a plan for parent participation in the school district, which must be designed to improve parent
12     and teacher cooperation in homework, attendance, and discipline;

13             (b)     a plan to provide parents with information about how to participate in the governance of the 14     school district through the locally elected board of trustees;

15             (c)     procedures by which a parent may learn about the course of study for the parent's child;

16             (d)     procedures by which a parent may withdraw the parent's child from instruction or presentations,
17     assemblies, guest lectures, or other educational events facilitated by a school's faculty or staff, including those 18     conducted by outside individuals or organizations, that offend the parent's beliefs or practices;

19             (e)     procedures by which a parent may learn about the nature and purpose of clubs and
20     extracurricular activities that have been approved by the school or that the school is required to allow under the 21     provisions of the federal Equal Access Act of 1984 and may withdraw the parent's child from any club or 22     extracurricular activity. A student shall provide a signed parental permission form prior to participating in any 23     school-sponsored club or extracurricular activity.

24             (f)     procedures by which a parent shall provide written consent before the parent's child uses a
25     pronoun that does not align with the child's sex. If a parent provides written consent under this subsection (1)(f),
26     a person may not be compelled to use pronouns that do not align with the child's sex.

27             (g)     procedures by which a parent may learn about parental rights and responsibilities under the 28     laws of this state.
