19   a fine of $1,000, except that if one or more passengers under 16 years of age were in the vehicle at the time of 20   the offense, the person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than 4 consecutive days or more than 1 21   year and by a fine of $2,000;

22              (ii) — for a second violation offense, by imprisonment for not less than 15 days or more than 1 year 23   and by a fine of $2,500, except that if one or more passengers under 16 years of age were in the vehicle at the 24   time of the offense, the person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than 45 days or more than 1 year 25   and by a fine of $5,000; or

26              (iii) — for a third violation offense, by imprisonment for not less than 40 consecutive days or more 27   than 1 year and by a fine of $5,000, except that if one or more passengers under 16 years of age were in the 28   vehicle at the time of the offense, the person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than 90

1 consecutive days or more than 1 year and by a fine of $10,000.

2 (b) The mandatory minimum imprisonment term may not be served under home arrest and may 3 not be suspended unless the judge finds that the imposition of the imprisonment sentence will pose a risk to the 4 person's physical or mental well-being.

5 (c) The remainder of the imprisonment sentence may be suspended for a period of up to 1 year 6 pending the person's successful completion of a chemical dependency treatment program pursuant to 61-8-7 1009. During any suspended portion of sentence imposed by the court:

8 (i) the person is subject to all conditions of the suspended sentence imposed by the court,
9 including mandatory participation in drug or DUI courts, if available;

10 (ii) the person is subject to all conditions of the 24/7 sobriety and drug monitoring program, if 11 available and if imposed by the court; and

12 (iii) if the person violates any condition of the suspended sentence or any treatment requirement, 13 the court may impose the remainder of any imprisonment term that was imposed and suspended.

14 (d) If the person has a prior conviction offense under 45-5-106, the person shall be punished as 15 provided in 61-8-1008.

16 (5) In addition to the punishment provided in this section, regardless of disposition, the person 17 shall comply with the chemical dependency education course and chemical dependency treatment provisions in 18 61-8-1009 as ordered by the court.

19 (6) A person punished pursuant to this section is subject to mandatory revocation or suspension of 20 the person's driver's license as provided in chapter 5."

22 Section 1. Section 61-8-1011, MCA, is amended to read:

23 "61-8-1011. Driving under influence -- conviction PRIOR OFFENSE CONVICTION defined -- place of imprisonment -- home arrest -- exceptions -- deferral of sentence not allowed. (1) (a) For the purpose of 25 determining the number of convictions for prior offenses referred to in 61-8-1001, 61-8-1002, 61-8-1007, and 26 61-8-1008, "conviction" "prior offense" "CONVICTION" means:

27 (i) a final conviction, as defined in 45-2-101, in this state, in another state, or on a federally 28 recognized Indian reservation;

10 (b) An offender is considered to have been previously convicted for the purposes of sentencing if 11 less than 10 years have elapsed between the commission of the present offense and ~~a~~ the commission of a 12 previous ~~conviction~~ offense CONVICTION unless the offense is the offender's third or subsequent offense, in 13 which case all previous ~~convictions~~ offenses CONVICTIONS must be used for sentencing purposes.

14 (c) A previous ~~conviction offense~~ CONVICTION for a violation of driving under the influence, including 15 61-8-1002(1)(a), (1)(b), (1)(c), or (1)(d), an offense that meets the definition of aggravated driving under the 16 influence in 61-8-1001, or a similar offense under previous laws of this state or the laws of another state, or a 17 violation of a similar statute or regulation in another state or on a federally recognized Indian reservation, and 18 as otherwise defined in subsection (1)(a) may be counted for the purposes of determining the number of a 19 subsequent ~~conviction offense~~ CONVICTION for a violation of driving under the influence under 61-8-1002.

20 (d) A previous conviction for a violation of 45-5-104 for which the offense under 45-5-104 occurred 21 while the person was operating a vehicle in violation of driving under the influence, including 61-8-1002(1)(a), 22 (1)(b), (1)(c), or (1)(d), an offense that meets the definition of aggravated driving under the influence in 61-8-23 1001, or a similar offense under previous laws of this state or the laws of another state, and a previous 24 conviction for a violation of 45-5-205 or 45-5-628(1)(e) may also be counted for the purposes of determining the 25 number of a subsequent conviction for a violation of driving under the influence under 61-8-1002.

26 (2) Except as provided in 61-8-1008, the court may order that a term of imprisonment imposed 27 under 61-8-1007 or 61-8-1008 be served in another facility made available by the county and approved by the 28 sentencing court. The defendant, if financially able, shall bear the expense of the imprisonment in the facility.

1 The court may impose restrictions on the defendant's ability to leave the premises of the facility and may 2 require that the defendant follow the rules of the facility. The facility may be, but is not required to be, a
3 community-based prerelease center as provided for in 53-1-203. The prerelease center may accept or reject a 4 defendant referred by the sentencing court.

8 (4) A court may not defer imposition of sentence under 61-8-1007 or 61-8-1008.

9 (5) The provisions of 61-2-107, 61-5-205(2), and 61-5-208(2), relating to suspension of driver's 10 licenses and later reinstatement of driving privileges, apply to any conviction under 61-8-1007 for a violation of 11 61-8-1002."
