SUBJECT: California Native American Day and the California Indian Cultural Awareness Conference

SOURCE: Author

DIGEST: This resolution recognizes the importance of California Native American Day, celebrated this year on September 26, 2025, and the annual California Indian Cultural Awareness Conference, to the enhancement of awareness of California Indian culture.

ANALYSIS: This resolution makes the following legislative findings:

- 1) The cultural and governmental contributions of the Native people of California have shaped the course of the state throughout history. More Native Americans call California home and the state includes more federally recognized Indian tribes than any other state in the United States of America.
- 2) California Native American Day is celebrated in this state by tribes and communities across the state, and is a day for educators of California to teach factual California Indian history in schools.
- 3) California Indian tribes are committed to continue contributing to the educational curricula provided by the state and believe in providing new and improved educational resources about the varied cultural histories of, and governance models used by, California Native Americans.
- 4) The California Indian Cultural Awareness Conference will be held concurrently with California Native American Day and will assist educators by providing new educational resources regarding the rich and varied lives of the California Indian Nations.

This resolution recognizes the importance of California Native American Day, celebrated this year on September 26, 2025, and the annual California Indian Cultural Awareness Conference, to the enhancement of awareness of California Indian culture.
