COMMENTS:

- 1) Purpose of the resolution. According to the author, “Sailor Noah Tobin was a respected and honorable member of the United States Navy that sadly passed away during a parachute training exercise. Noah was loved by all who knew him, including his family and colleagues who mourned Noah deeply after his passing. Due to his sacrifice and his dedication to serving the United States and protecting it’s people, it is imperative that he be honored and remembered.”
- 2) Background. U.S. Navy Sailor Noah Tobin was a native of Valley Center, California, and one of eight siblings. He followed the proud legacy of his grandfathers when he joined the United States Navy in 2021. Tobin distinguished himself early in his career, earning the rank of Petty Officer Second Class and joining the elite ranks of the Special Warfare Combatant-Craft Crewmen (SWCC).

As a Special Warfare Boat Operator assigned to Special Boat Team 20, Tobin was a highly trained specialist in clandestine maritime operations. His role required immense precision and resilience, as he operated high-speed vessels in support of Navy SEALs and global special operations missions. He reported to his first command, an East Coast-based Naval Special Warfare Unit, in May 2024.

Tragically, on July 2, 2025, shortly after returning from a deployment, he passed away following a parachute training exercise in Porterville, California. On July 7, 2025, the communities of Escondido and Valley Center gathered to bring their hero home. Hundreds lined the streets as a procession of military personnel, law enforcement, and firefighters escorted Tobin to his final resting place. The ceremony was attended by community leaders, including the Mayor of Escondido and representatives from Congressman Darrell Issa's office, who presented the Tobin family with a folded flag and a hero's proclamation. Tobin is survived by his parents and siblings.
