***** ANALYSIS ADDENDUM – SUSPENSE FILE *******

The following information is revised to reflect amendments adopted by the committee on January 22, 2026

Fiscal Impact:

- Unknown, potentially significant costs to the state funded trial court system (Trial Court Trust Fund, General Fund) to adjudicate civil actions. Creating a new cause of action that allows for the recovery of attorney's fees may lead to additional case filings that otherwise would not have been commenced. Creating new causes of action could lead to lengthier and more complex court proceedings with attendant workload and resource costs to the court. The fiscal impact of this bill to the courts will depend on many unknowns, including the number of cases filed and the factors unique to each case. An eight-hour court day costs approximately $10,500 in staff in workload. This is a conservative estimate, based on the hourly rate of court personnel including at minimum the judge, clerk, bailiff, court reporter, jury administrator, administrative staff, and jury per-diems. If court days exceed 10, costs to the trial courts could reach hundreds of thousands of dollars. While the courts are not funded on a workload basis, an increase in workload could result in delayed court services and would put pressure on the General Fund to fund additional staff and resources and to increase the amount appropriated to backfill for trial court operations. The proposed fiscal year 2026–27 Governor's provides for $70 million ongoing General Fund to help the trial courts address increases in operational costs (e.g.: salaries and benefits, supplies, equipment, and other services necessary for the courts to operate) and mitigate potential reductions to core program and services.
- Unknown, potentially significant costs to state and local government officials (General Fund, special funds, local funds) for increased exposure to civil liability. Agencies may also incur higher liability insurance costs due to increased litigation exposure.
