DIGEST: This resolution proclaims Monday, May 4, 2026, as California Peace Officers' Memorial Day.

Senate Floor Amendments of 4/27/26 add Senate and Assembly coauthors, and make other minor, technical changes.

ANALYSIS: This resolution makes the following legislative findings:

- 1) Monday, May 4, 2026, is California Peace Officers' Memorial Day, a day Californians observe in commemoration of those noble officers who have tragically sacrificed their lives in the line of duty.
- 2) Peace officers have a job second in importance to none, and it is a job that is as difficult and dangerous as it is important. By the enforcement of our laws, these same peace officers have safeguarded the lives and property of the citizens of California and have given their full measure to ensure these citizens the right to be free from crime and violence.
- 3) Special ceremonies and observations on behalf of California peace officers provide all Californians with the opportunity to appreciate the heroic individuals who have dedicated their lives to preserving public safety.

This resolution proclaims Monday, May 4, 2026, as California Peace Officers' Memorial Day and urges all Californians to remember those individuals who have given their lives for our safety and express appreciation to those who continue to dedicate themselves to making California a safer place to live and raise our families
