DIGEST: This resolution recognizes the week of September 17, 2026, to September 23, 2026, inclusive, as Constitution Week.

ANALYSIS: This resolution makes the following legislative findings:

- 1) September 17, 2026, marks the 239th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution of the United States of America by the Constitutional Convention of 1787, establishing the framework of the American system of government and securing the blessings of liberty for future generations.
- 2) The Constitution of the United States remains one of the most enduring governing charters in human history, providing a resilient structure of representative government, separation of powers, federalism, checks and balances, and the protection of individual liberties through the rule of law.
- 3) Throughout the history of the United States, Americans have strengthened the promises of liberty and equality through constitutional amendments and the efforts of abolitionists, suffragists, civil rights leaders, and countless citizens committed to justice under law.
- 4) The Constitution has guided the nation through times of war, economic hardship, social change, and political disagreement, while preserving the peaceful transfer of power and the enduring stability of republican government.

This resolution recognizes the enduring significance of the Constitution in safeguarding liberty, preserving democratic self-government, protecting the rule of law, and securing justice for all Americans.
