SUBJECT: California Wine Month

SOURCE: Author

DIGEST: This resolution congratulates and celebrates California's wine community by declaring September 2025 California Wine Month.

ANALYSIS: This resolution makes the following legislative findings:

- 1) California wineries are mainly family-owned businesses, many of which are proudly multigenerational and pass on time-honored traditions while taking advantage of new innovations, producing 81% of America's wine.
- 2) California wine makes significant financial contributions to local communities, the state, and the country by supporting hundreds of thousands of quality jobs, bolstering economies through tourism and taxes, and enhancing communities through environmental stewardship and charitable giving.
- 3) With the most comprehensive and widely adopted sustainability programs in the world, 90% of California wine is made in 250 certified sustainable wineries, and 70% of the state's vineyard acreage is certified sustainable.
- 4) The dedication of California wineries to sustainability is reflected in their approach to producing wine with commitment, collaboration, innovation, investment, and leadership, all of which help to secure the future of the wine community for generations to come.

This resolution congratulates and celebrates California's wine community by declaring September 2025 California Wine Month.
