

SENATE BILL 2320

By Haile

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 2, Chapter 10, relative to security.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 2-10-114(b), is amended by adding the following as a new subdivision (4) and redesignating the existing subdivision (4) accordingly:

(4) Expenditures of campaign funds to enhance security for a candidate or officeholder's personal residence are not deemed for personal use. Expenditures authorized by this subdivision (b)(4) are limited to twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) per calendar year and must be disclosed as "residential security." The candidate or officeholder shall maintain all documentation pertaining to residential security expenditures in accordance with § 2-10-212(c). In the event of an audit or investigation, all information received by the registry concerning this subdivision (b)(4) is confidential and not open to public inspection.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.

AMEND Senate Bill No. 2320

House Bill No. 2045*

by deleting the amendatory language of SECTION 1 and substituting:

(4) Expenditures of campaign funds to enhance security for an officeholder's personal residence are not deemed for personal use. Expenditures authorized by this subdivision (b)(4) are limited to home security consultation, home security equipment, home security monitoring services, and the use of security guards at an officeholder's personal residence. Expenditures must not exceed twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) per calendar year and must be disclosed as "residential security." For the purposes of this subdivision (b)(4), "home security equipment" means security software, entryway sensors, motion sensors, base stations, control panels, security cameras, video doorbells, floodlights, key fobs, panic buttons, glass break sensors, smoke and fire detectors, locks, and security doors. The officeholder shall maintain all documentation pertaining to residential security expenditures in accordance with § 2-10-212(c). In the event of an audit or investigation, all information received by the registry concerning this subdivision (b)(4) is confidential and not open to public inspection.
