

SENATE BILL 2412

By Hensley

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 4, Chapter 18; Title 29, Chapter 39 and Title 63, Chapter 6, Part 11, relative to civil actions.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. On or before January 1, 2027, the administrative office of the courts shall submit a report on whether the limit on the compensation for noneconomic damages and catastrophic loss or injury should be raised and, if so, their recommendations. The report must be submitted to the chair of the judiciary committee of the senate and the chair of the house of representatives having jurisdiction over civil-related matters.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.

AMEND Senate Bill No. 2412*

House Bill No. 2380

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 63-6-1108, is amended by deleting the section and substituting:

(a) The attorney general and reporter may bring a civil action to:

(1) Enforce compliance with this part; or

(2) Impose a civil penalty, as described in subsection (b), for a knowing violation of § 63-6-1103(b).

(b)

(1) Except as provided in subdivision (b)(2), the attorney general and reporter may impose a civil penalty of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per violation of § 63-6-1103(b).

(2) If a court determines that an individual suffered serious bodily injury or death due to a violation of § 63-6-1103(b), then the attorney general and reporter may impose a civil penalty of one million dollars ($1,000,000).

(3) Each individual to whom an abortion-inducing drug is provided in violation of § 63-6-1103(b) constitutes a separate violation.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect July 1, 2026, the public welfare requiring it, and applies to actions occurring on or after that date.
